GATHERING

The Holy Spirit gathers us together as the people of God

GATHERING MUSIC

ANNOUNCEMENTS

To impress on the minds and hearts of believers the awful consequence of sin and the magnitude of the Savior's sacrifice, the ancient church held a special service called Tenebrae in the last days in Holy Week.

The meaning of the word Tenebrae is darkness. The service began in silence and ended in almost total darkness, the lights being gradually extinguished as the service proceeded.

The Extinguishing of the Candles is to remind us of the events that led to the darkness which covered the earth on the first Good Friday. According to some authorities, it could signify the flight of the disciples.

In our service, one candle remains burning to symbolize the fact that Christ did not remain in the grave, but rose again. The forces of hell could not prevail against the Light of the World.

Because of the dramatic nature of this service and the mood that it creates, no offering will be taken during the service. Offering plates will be located at the exits should you desire to make an offering as you leave.

This is the most solemn of worship services: Quiet and meditation should be maintained throughout.

All those who are worshipping with us are requested, at the end of this service, to leave quietly in order to preserve the spirit of the worship.

Reflection at the Foot of the Cross

Jesus says: O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you? Answer me. I gave you a royal scepter, and bestowed on you the keys to the kingdom, but you have given me a crown of thorns and you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,
have mercy on us.

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you. Answer me. I gave you my peace, which the world cannot give, but you draw the sword to strike in my name, and you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,
have mercy on us.

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you. Answer me. I washed your feet as a sign of my love and offered you my body and blood, but you scatter, you deny and abandon me, and you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,
have mercy on us.

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you. Answer me. I prayed that all may be one in the Father and me, but you continue to quarrel and divide, casting lots for my clothing, and you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,
have mercy on us.

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you. Answer me. I grafted you into the tree of my chosen Israel but you made them scapegoats for your own guilt, and you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,
have mercy on us.

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you. Answer me. I came to you as the least of your brothers and sisters, but I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you did not welcome me. I was naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me, and you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,
have mercy on us.

The Hymn

“Beneath the Cross of Jesus”

Prayer

Let us pray . . .

Merciful God, your Son was lifted up on the cross to draw all people to himself. Grant that we who have been born out of his wounded side may at all times find mercy in him, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

A Word of Pardon

Luke 23:27-34

<sup>27</sup>A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him. <sup>28</sup>But Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup>For the days are surely coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' <sup>30</sup>Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us'; and to the hills, 'Cover us.' <sup>31</sup>For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

<sup>32</sup>Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. <sup>33</sup>When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. <sup>34</sup>Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing.

A Word of Assurance

Luke 23:39-43

<sup>39</sup>One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" <sup>40</sup>But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? <sup>41</sup>And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." <sup>42</sup>Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." <sup>43</sup>He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

A Word of Compassion

John 19:25b-27

<sup>25b</sup>Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup>When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, "Woman, here is your son." <sup>27</sup>Then he said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

A Word of Anguish

Matthew 27:45-49

<sup>45</sup>From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. <sup>46</sup>And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" <sup>47</sup>When some of the bystanders heard it, they said, "This man is calling for Elijah." <sup>48</sup>At once one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink. <sup>49</sup>But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him."

A Word of Release

Luke 23:44-46

<sup>44</sup>It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, <sup>45</sup>while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. <sup>46</sup>Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." Having said this, he breathed his last.
