Weeping and Laughing

A midwife who knows the birthing process well observes that grief is like labor, only backwards. Close to the loss, the “contractions” of grief are intense and very close together. Over time, the pain becomes less intense and the intervals between times of deep sadness grow longer. Grief, like labor, is more like a circle than a line. When we expect the easing of grief to follow a straight line—imagining that today should be better than yesterday, and tomorrow a little better still—we are shocked and frustrated when another wave of weeping overtakes us. Hope rises, only to be dashed.

To those putting one foot in front of the other on the winding route that is grief, Jesus says simply, “You will laugh.” It is a promise. Weeping will not consume you. Grief will not be allowed to draw the boundaries of your future. Jesus acknowledges the present state of things, and yet, here and now, he sees a different future.

In Luke’s gospel today, Jesus puts that different future into words so we can see it too. These verses do not offer pity or sympathy. They do not give us a to-do list. Here Jesus speaks of a time and place that, without his words and deeds, we could not imagine. He draws the outlines of a future—the reign of God—into which he invites us now.

When we light candles in memory of loved ones who have died, when in our prayers we give thanks for those who have gone before us, and when we gather at the table of the Lord as one body with saints above and saints below, our words and deeds testify to the future Jesus announced: we are joined with him in divine love so faithful that its bonds are unbroken even by death. Here and now, through tears, we laugh. The Risen One has given us the hope and courage we need to trust him with our future.

All Saints Sunday

November 3, 2019

As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember those who have died in Christ. At this All Saints worship experience, we remember the saints that have gone before us. As the liturgical year draws to a close, the Christian community speaks honestly about human frailty and mortality.

At the same time, we confess our faith in the risen Lord, in the communion of saints, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. While we may face death with fear, the liturgy calls us to hear the Lord's promise that Christ is with us in life and in death.

Christ has claimed us in baptism and nourishes us in the communion of body and blood. Jesus leads us to the new Jerusalem. There we shall join all the saints in praise of God, who has turned our graves into the doorway to eternal life.

Holy Silence is observed as we enter to worship.

First Reading

Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

The book of Daniel was written in the second century BCE, when the Syrian king Antiochus Epiphanes was severely persecuting the Jews. Daniel's vision of the four beasts serves to proclaim the message that human kings will come and go, but the kingdom will ultimately belong to God and to God's people.

☒ A reading from Daniel:

¹In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: ²I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, ³and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

¹⁵As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me.

¹⁶I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: ¹⁷“As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—forever and ever.”

☒ The word of the Lord.

☑ Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

¹Hallelujah! Sing to the LORD | a new song,
God's praise in the assembly | of the faithful.

²Let Israel rejoice | in their maker;
let the children of Zion be joyful | in their ruler.

³Let them praise their maker's | name with dancing;
let them sing praise with tambou- | rine and harp.

⁴For the LORD takes pleasure | in the people
and adorns the | poor with victory. ☒

⁵Let the faithful re- | joice in triumph;
let them sing for joy | on their beds.

⁶Let the praises of God be | in their throat
and a two-edged sword | in their hand,

⁷to wreak vengeance | on the nations
and punishment | on the peoples,

⁸to bind their | kings in chains
and their nobles with | links of iron,

⁹to inflict on them the judg- | ment decreed;
this is glory for all God's faithful ones. | Hallelujah ☒

Second Reading

Ephesians 1:11-23

After giving thanks for the faith of the Ephesians, Paul prays that they might understand the wisdom, hope, and power of God that is embodied in Jesus Christ.

☐ A reading from Ephesians:

¹¹In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹²so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

¹⁵I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason ¹⁶I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. ¹⁷I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, ¹⁸so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, ¹⁹and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. ²⁰God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. ²²And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

☐ The word of the Lord.

☑ Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Luke 6:20-31

In echoes of the prophet Isaiah and Mary's song of praise, Jesus reveals surprising things about who enjoys blessing and who endures woe. He invites his disciples to shower radical love, blessing, forgiveness, generosity, and trust, even to enemies and outsiders.

▫ The Holy Gospel, according to Luke:

☩ Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁰Then [Jesus] looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹"Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. ²²"Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. ²³Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. ²⁴"But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. ²⁵"Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. "Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. ²⁶"Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. ²⁷"But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. ²⁹If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. ³⁰Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. ³¹Do to others as you would have them do to you."

▫ The Gospel of the Lord.

☩ Praise to you, O Christ.

Thanksgiving for Saints of the Church

☩ O God of the pilgrim's way, we give thanks for those in generations past who have been examples for us of God's love at work in the world. As we pray, we know that we are surrounded by this great, rejoicing cloud of witnesses. Yet, even as we name these holy ancestors, we thank you, O God, for others whose names we never knew or have forgotten, who showed us the meaning of life in Christ. God of love, ☩ Receive our prayers.

Offertory

We Are an Offering

We lift our voice-es, we lift our hands, we lift our lives up to you: we are an of-fer-ing. Lord, use our voice-es, Lord, use our hands, Lord, use our lives, they are yours: we are an of-fer-ing. All that we have, all that we are, all that we hope to be, we give to you, we give to you.
We lift our voice-es, we lift our hands, we lift our lives up to you:
we are an of-fer-ing, we are an of-fer-ing.

Offering Prayer

- A Let us pray . . . Living and true God, we give to you the things that are yours – our skills, our time, our possessions, our selves. Bless us and these your gifts.
- C Move us to works of faith and labors of love for the good of all people and the wholeness of your creation; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen

Sharing the Peace of God

- P The peace of Christ be with you.
- C And also with you.

(We share the peace of Christ with one another.)

The Great Thanksgiving

☐ The Lord be with you.

☑ And also with you.

☐ Lift up your hearts.

☑ We lift them to the Lord.

☐ Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

☑ It is right to give our thanks and praise.

☐ It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ, who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by the glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry, full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Table Prayer

- ☞ Holy, living and loving God, we praise you for creating the heavens and the earth.
- ☛ You created a world in which all might be satisfied by your abundance.

- ☞ We praise you for Christ, who proclaimed your reign of peace.
- ☛ You, Lord God, promise an end to injustice and harm.

- ☞ In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, the sacrifice of Christ's life, death and the gift of resurrection,

- ☛ we await with all the saints the loving redemption of our suffering world.
- ☞ Send your Spirit on these gifts of bread and wine and on all who share in the body and blood of your Son.
- ☛ Teach us your mercy and justice, and in Christ make all things new.

- ☞ All glory and honor is yours, Almighty God, now and forever.
- ☛ Amen

Lord's Prayer

- ☞ Gathered by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught:
- ☛ Our Father in heaven, holy be your name. Your kingdom come your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

- ☞ God's love is poured out in Christ for you. Open yourselves to receive it.
- ☛ Thanks be to God.
