Epiphany

January 3, 2021

The season of Epiphany begins January 6th (the 12th day after Christmas) and marks the revelation of the baby Jesus as the Son of God. The Epiphany season, therefore, celebrates the spread of the Good News from its source in the Jewish community to all nations on earth. The color is green, for growth, as Scripture texts explore the mission of the church in the world.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP! Jesus invites us to use the gifts that we have been given to grow into a stronger servant. We should not just limp along with maintenance work. We should be diligent in sharing grace. We look forward to the day that we are celebrate our eternal salvation and worship God in the splendor in the heavenly realm with the gift of the Messiah among us now and forever.

Announcements

Holy Silence is observed as we enter to worship.

Prayer of the Day

A Let us pray....O God, on this day you revealed your Son to the nations by the leading of a star.

C Lead us now by faith to know your presence in our lives and bring us at last to the full vision of your glory, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

℣ A reading from Isaiah

Jerusalem is assured that nations will make a pilgrimage to her because the light of God's presence is in her midst. The bountiful food of the sea and the profits of international trade will come streaming to Jerusalem and thereby declare God's praise.

¹Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. ²For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. ³Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. ⁴Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. ⁵Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. ⁶A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

℣ The Word of the Lord.

☩ Thanks be to God.

What had been hidden from previous generations is now made known through the gospel ministry of Paul and others. In Christ both Jews and Gentiles participate in the richness of God's promised salvation.

📖 A reading from Ephesians:

¹This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—²for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you, ³and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, ⁴a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. ⁵In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: ⁶that is, the Gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

⁷Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power. ⁸Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, ⁹and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; ¹⁰so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. ¹¹This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

📖 The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Reading

John 1:1-14

John begins his gospel with this prologue: a hymn to the Word through whom all things were created. This Word became flesh and brought grace and truth to the world.

☐ The Holy Gospel, according to John.

☑ Glory to you, O Lord.

¹In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being ⁴in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. ⁵The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

⁶There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. ⁸He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. ⁹The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

¹⁰He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. ¹¹He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. ¹²But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, ¹³who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

¹⁴And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

☐ The Gospel of the Lord.

☑ Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles Creed

- Ⓐ We confess our faith as one body in Christ Jesus:
ⓐ I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Another Word for Treasure Chest

Those magi traveled a long way, following a star only they understood. They knew that it was a divine epiphany leading them to the beginning of something new: the birth of a good king. They had saved their gold, frankincense, and myrrh for just such a “reigny” day when the reign of God’s peace-bringing ruler would come. These were gifts fit to honor a magnanimous leader, and with great joy they set out to honor Jesus.

We gather to give our praise and honor to Jesus whenever we come together as church to worship, to hear scripture, to sing, and to celebrate at the table of grace. What gifts do we have to offer to honor the good ruler named Jesus? Gold, frankincense, and myrrh are wonderful, but they do not seem to be the right way for us to pay homage.

Matthew tells us those magi opened their treasure chests. The Greek word in the New Testament for “treasure chest” is thesaurus. A thesaurus book is so named because it is a “treasure chest” of words. Sometimes you need just the right word to say what is important, or what is on your heart, or what needs a poetic flair. You might want to say that something is beautiful, but a thesaurus helps you say that it is exquisite or stunning.

As we come to worship the newborn king, who is also the crucified and risen Jesus present with us now, we open our own treasure chests, offering praise, thanks, and glory to God. Our songs of praise are our gold. Our prayers of gratitude are our frankincense. Our thanksgiving at the table is our myrrh. Like those traveling magi, we are overwhelmed with joy that we have been guided to this time and place to stop, pay homage, and see the good news right before our eyes.

Giving Tree

The Giving Tree will be set up in the gathering area after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Local schools are in need of items that make learning more fun, and this year more safe. Learning doesn't happen as easily when students are distracted by hunger. Teachers often have to supply the daily snack for their classrooms because families do not or cannot send it in. More individual art supplies are needed as students are not supposed to share items this year.

Please come select a tag or two, or share a donation earmarked 2020 Giving Tree. You may also call the church to find out what is still needed or check the Grace Facebook page for more ideas.

The giving tree will be up until January 15, 2021. Thank you for your support of this wonderful ministry, as Hastings Area Schools returns to in person classes on January 6.

Food Pantry

The Hastings Food Pantry is seeing an increase in clientele. As many jobs have been lost because of the new restrictions but in place with COVID 19 the food pantry believes there will be another rise in traffic to the pantry. Needs are:

Prayer

Chunky & Progressive Soups

Saltine Crackers

Boxes or packets of Beef or Chicken Rice

Cakes and Frosting

Brownies

Cans of Pineapple

Please join Pastor Ken in 2021, as Grace Lutheran Church is invited to read through the entire New Testament in Chronological Order. Not Matthew to Revelation, but James to Revelation. You may be surprised to know that many of the New Testament Letters were composed before the Gospels were written. There is an insert provided in January's GraceGram entitled 2021 Daily Reading Guide.

DUE TO THE PANDEMIC, THE 2021 OFFERING ENVELOPES HAVE BEEN DELAYED. WE WILL NOTIFY YOU WHEN THEY ARE READY AND, IN YOUR MAILBOXES, HERE AT CHURCH.
